Coravin Selections

The Coravin is a unique device that allows you to pour wine from the bottle without actually opening the bottle. This is accomplished through the use of a pressurized gas system and a hollow titanium needle that punctures the cork allowing wine to flow out and Argon gas to flow in replacing the remaining Oxygen in the bottle. This essentially arrests any oxidation from occurring in the bottle. The Coravin allows us to offer these exciting wines by the glass for your pleasure. The Coravin selection will change regularly so follow us to find out what's pouring next month.

La Scolca Gavi di Gavi Black Label 2013

La Scolca is the most famous and respected producer of Gavi wine from the Piemonte region of Italy. Gavi, produced from the Cortese grape, is prized for its complex, often Burgundian style and ability to pair with a wide range of dishes. Full-flavored with notes of ripe pear, lemon tea, and minerality, the wine is surprisingly rich for a white wine and masterfully balanced with fruit and stone.

$5 1oz sip $14 3oz taster $20 5oz pour $85 bottle

Barolo Martin Marasco 2001

Traditional hillside village in the rolling hills of Piemonte, North Western Italy. Fragrant, tannic, full body Barolo wine.

Predominantly from the region's signature grape variety Nebbiolo.

$9 1oz sip $27 3oz taster $42 5oz pour $175 bottle

Amarone C. della Valp., Bertani Villa Arvedi 2011

Amarone is now one of the most popular red wines from Italy in California. Their full flavored and robust character makes it a great choice for heavier fare or contemplation over cheese and charcuterie. The Bertani is the top of its class exhibiting lush berry jam, violets, and earthy truffle flavors, with beautiful minerality and complexity flowing through the silky finish.

$7 1oz sip $17 3oz taster $28 5oz pour $112 bottle

Barbera Bricco dell'Uccellone 2013

Bricco dell'Uccellone is an old vine, single vineyard Barbera, a very famous wine, widely regarded as Italy's top Barbera. It is well suited to long aging. The name literally means

“big bird” as the vineyard was off watched over by a very tall woman who would stand on her villa’s balcony and curiously watch the vineyard workers when they were tending the vines

$8 1oz sip $23 3oz taster $34 5oz pour $145 bottle
